WARREN TWP. - Sisters Natalie and Tricia Pompilio collaborated to create “Walking Philadelphia: Tours Exploring Art, Architecture, History and Little-Known Gems,” a tour book published by Wilderness Press in June.

Tricia is a 1994 graduate of Watchung Hills Regional High School. Natalie is a 1988 graduate of South Plainfield High school.

The Warren natives were raised by Lou Pompilio and the late Pat Pompilio. Mr. Pompilio, of Round Top Road, is an area real estate agent and owner of the Century 21 office in Scotch Plains.

Natalie and Tricia now live in Philadelphia, about five blocks from each other. They will be celebrating Thanksgiving in Warren.

"In many ways, this book is a love letter to my new home city," said Tricia. "I'd love it if some of my Watchung Hills friends would visit."

The book can be purchased on www.amazon.com or www.barnesandnoble.com and at major book stores. The book is also on Instagram at "Walkingphiladelphiabook" and on Facebook at www.facebook.com/walkingphilly.

Natalie can be reached at her website at www.nataliepompilio.com.
